Hello everyone! My name is Rene Daniali and I am the owner of PlatinumECigs.com. I established the business earlier in 2013 because as many others share the same story, vaping help me quit my "analog" cigarette addiction. Since quitting regular cigarettes which we vapers call "analog", I have saved countless years of my life and I feel the best I have ever felt in a while. I am very passionate about the products I sell and I will commit myself to providing you with 100% customer satisfaction. Sure, you can purchase e-cigarettes from a number of sites, but at PlatinumECigs.com you can be confident that you'll receive quality service and unique products. Platinum E-Cigs supplies a variety of e-cigarettes for new to experienced vapor connoisseurs. Also, when you shop at Platinum E-Cigs you can be sure you are getting the best product at the best price possible. I personally inspect every single order and I am very knowledgeable in every product so you can rest assured you are getting the best value for your money. I promise never to sell you anything that I have not tried . I pride myself in my business and my customer's satisfaction. If you ever have any questions, you can call, email, text, tweet, facebook me. I try and make myself 100% available for you! As a small but growing e-cig startup business, I strive to provide my customers with one of the most pleasant, informational and efficient customer e-Cig purchase experiences on the Internet. From Atomizers to Batteries to Customizers and Clearomizers, and beyond, I try to stock everything for all your vaping needs. Remember, I used to be a tobacco smoker and I never regret going back from the e-cig experience. We're thankful for our customers' feedback, and we take any and all suggestions into consideration. Join our Facebook community and Twitter following to participate in the latest e-cig discussions and get surprise PlatinumECigs.com promotions. Don't be shy, we want to hear from you! Remember, Happy Vaping!
