South West Distribution launched in 2017 with two goals:

1 - To make things easier for retailers. We do the hard work for you, with market research at our own stores done over a long period of time, meaning we know exactly what sells and at what price.

2- The complete satisfaction of our consumers. Our passion for the vape industry didn't begin because of our love for huge companies controlling the market, it began because it's an industry run by independent companies and the consumer.

This is why we really listen, replying to every query and compliant, keeping up with the products people want to see and providing the best possible service.
